Dear Members,

RE: Declaration and Payment of Dividends for the year ended 31 December 2019

We have finally managed to have the accounts registered with the ministry. This took some time because of the lean staff both with our service providers and with the public service. This is understandable in these challenging times.

On the strength of a circular from the Government of Kenya, Biblia Sacco Society Limited is distributing to its members a dividend of 7.35% on shares and an interest on deposits of 6.3%. The Biblia Sacco office will begin disbursing the same this week and by next week, majority of you should have received your dividends. As you may be aware, our AGM was previously scheduled for April 18 2020 but for obvious reasons we could not hold it until further notice.

The Biblia Sacco Board has also come up with measures to cushion our members during this Covid-19 pandemic. If you have not received the communication on the same, please visit our website for the Chairman's message.

We thank you for your continued support.

For the Board of Directors;

Walter Aoko

Chairman, Biblia Sacco Limited.
